

© Superstock/Corbis Images

Lesson 1 worksheet: Poverty

What on earth are these numbers about?

1
17
169
193
2030

The facts about poverty

	World in 1999	World in 2012	World today	England today
Population
% of people living in poverty

	Brazil
	Estimate	Answer
% poverty 2014
% poverty 2015
Population 2015

	Madagascar
	Estimate	Answer
% poverty 2010
% poverty 2012
Population 2012

Lesson 2 worksheet: Poverty and inequality

£500 shared among 5 sweetcorn farmers

Fair share

Unfair share

£70 shared among 5 shop keepers

Fair share

Unfair share

£900 among 15 lorry drivers

Fair share

Unfair share

A one-hectare mango farm in the Philippines should give a return of P100,000 per season.

Fair share

Unfair share

Approximately 2 tonnes of sunflower seeds are produced over 1 hectare of land and sell for about £650 in the UK.

Fair share

Unfair share

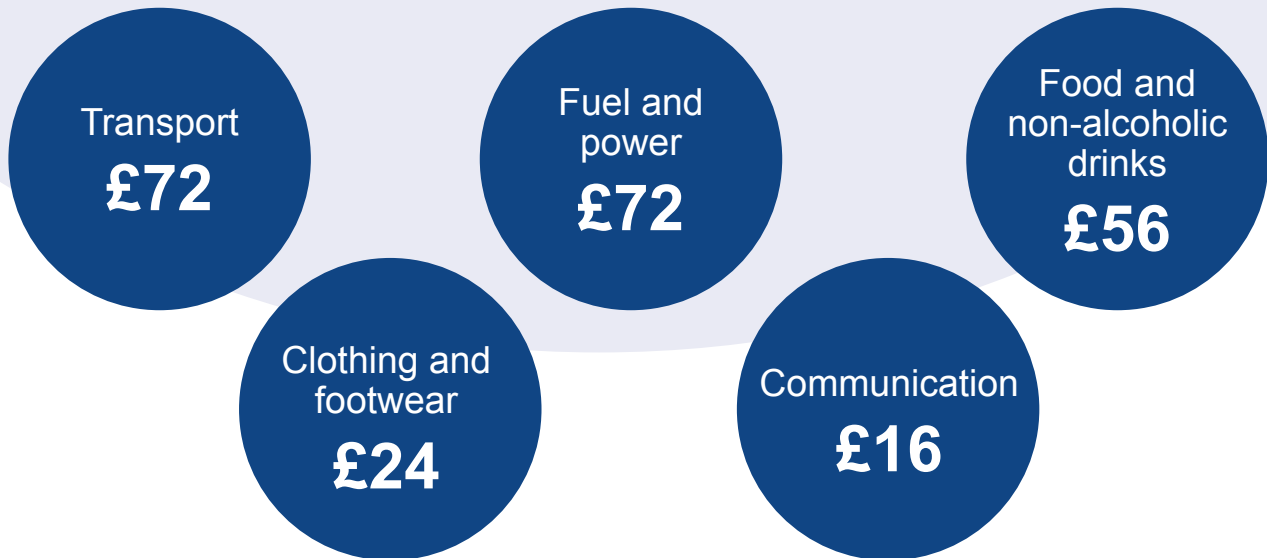

An apple harvest in Australia over 6 hectares produces a revenue of $297,033.

Fair share

Unfair share

The cost of living in the UK: Fact sheet

Average costs per household per week in the UK

Average costs of specific items from UK supermarkets

Figures taken from the Office for National Statistics:

<https://www.ons.gov.uk/peoplepopulationandcommunity/personalandhouseholdfinances/expenditure/bulletins/familyspendingintheuk/financialyearendingmarch2016>